

AZOLA & ASSOCIATES, INC.

BIOGRAPHY

ANTHONY AZOLA

Personal: Age 33

Education: Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University
MS in Forest Soils, February 2001
B.S., Forestry, 1997: Environmental Resource Management, Minors:
Soils and Environmental Science

Professional Experience: Vice President Azola & Associates, Inc.
2005 - Present

Anthony has been involved with historic preservation of residential and commercial buildings for the past 6 years. His experience includes historic tax credits, property management, project management, general building construction, and historic commercial development.

Mr. Azola has worked such notable projects as the Bromo Seltzer Tower, South Harbor Business Center, Ruscombe Mansion, and the Railway Express Building.

Professional Affiliations: Fort McHenry Business Association
The Engineers Club
National Trust for Historic Preservation
National Association of Home Builders
Home Builders Association of Maryland

Community Involvement: Past Vice President, of the Key Highway Community Association
Board Member, The Jones Falls Watershed Association
President, The Rockland Homeowners Association