

Biography of Matthew Azola

- Personal: Age 33, Married
Residence: Ramona, California
CA License # 928929
matazola@azolainc.com
760-208-0086
- Education: Towson State University-Photography/ Business 1998
Frostburg State, UMBC- Liberal Arts 1995-1997
Towson High School- class of 1995
- Positions Applying For: Superintendent
Quality Control Manager
Assistant Superintendent
- Work Experience: October 2008- Present: Azola Building Rehab, General Superintendent and Quality Control Management. Certified Rehab to DOI Standards. Design/build. Total budget over $3 million.
- Restoration of the Maryland House, one of only two remaining buildings from the 1876 Philadelphia Centennial Exposition.
 - Restoration and adaptive reuse of the old Towson Jail (ca. 1854) for fine wine storage, offices and Café.
 - Restoration of the Chapel at Trinity Episcopal Church (ca. 1850).
 - Construction of heavy timber Barn for the children of Hopewell Cancer Support. LEED certifiable. Amish framing crew.
- Marty Azola: 443-829-6942
- July 2008- October 2008: C and B Development, Superintendent and Quality Control Management. Tennant improvement on a 8000 sqft. retail space converted to private offices for the Center for Mental Health in Lake Elsinore, Ca.
David deBie: 619-954-9709
- April 2007- July 2008: Echo Pacific Construction, Superintendent. Building schools for Poway Unified School District. Chaparral Elementary and Willow Grove Elementary. Started a tenant improvement at the historical, "Copley Symphony Hall", in San Diego. Annual budget near $30 million.
Dan Smith: 760-807-1896
- March 2006-March 2007: C and B Development, Superintendent and Quality Control Management. Tenant improvements including two self preparation restaurants in Bonita, Ca., Super Suppers and My Girlfriends Kitchen. Total remodel and renovation of the new Standards of Excellence, plumbing and appliance showroom in San Marcos, Ca. Ground up office building in Oceanside, Ca.
David deBie: 619-954-9709
- March 2005- March 2006: Echo Pacific Construction, Superintendent. Custom home in Rancho Santa Fe, 7500 sq. ft. Customer liaison and field management.

Chris Rowe: 619-520-8437

July 2000- Current: Azola & Associates, Foreman, Superintendent, Quality Control Management and Consultant. Work responsibilities included management of all field operations, including payroll, scheduling, material acquisition and personnel management. Annual Budget near $2 million. Award winning projects included the restoration of the "Copy Cat" Building (19th century commercial Victorian), Mazaroff Residence (19th century fine residence) and Hopewell Cancer Support (19th century house conversion). Complete responsibility for fully implementing the approved rehab plans in the field. Currently a construction consultant in San Diego, Ca.

Marty Azola: 443-829-6942

1998- July 2000: JFJ and Sons Custom Woodworking, Carpenter and Forman. Performed residential and commercial rehabs with emphasis on Certified Historical procedures. Custom woodworking, cabinets, furniture, and finish carpentry. Award winning projects included "Solomon's Corner", the adaptive reuse of a 19th century urban mansion converted into national headquarters for "Brown Capital Management". Work involved careful restoration of all interior and exterior finishes. Annual Budget near $1 million plus.

John Felkner: 443-398-5302

Industry Involvement:

AGC board member for the apprenticeship program in San Diego.
(May 2007- July 2008)

Home Builders Association of Maryland, Remodeler's Council "Award of Excellence" Judging Committee (2003/2004)

Work Recently Featured in:

Chesapeake Home Magazine:

June 2005: "Barn Again"

April 2004: "Remodeling Excellence Awards & Winners"

April 2003: "Historic Horse Farm"

Baltimore Magazine:

October 2003: "Tax Credits: They're here from the government and they're here to help"

Recent Professional Awards:

2004- Preservation Award- Baltimore Heritage- Copy Cat Building
2000- Preservation Project Award- Maryland Historical Trust and Baltimore Heritage- Solomon's Corner Adaptive Reuse.

References and Client Listings are available upon request.